SHARP RALLY ON SHORTS COVERING, WITH GAINS WELL HELD INTO AFTERNOON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.-Naturally | PRICES TODAY ON there was a decidedly strong opening. It was started in London, when a large per of buying orders were sent over, not for the usual stiffening effect upon our market, but because there were belated shorts arxious to get in before overstaying their market—as they did on Tuesday afternoon—missed and passed a great opportunity, which they themselves had created. Then, in addition to the shorts there were numer

the common stock a 4 per cent dividend payer, and the fact that 10 per C. and G. W., cent was earned after liberal deductions, etc., and the outlook of the corporation is so good that the corporation is good that the corporation is so good tha cent was earned after liberal deductions, etc., and the outlook of the corporation is so good that the report acted as a tonic to the whole list and resulted largely in the checking of the downward trend.

All through the list the movement was toward higher figures. In some stocks the initial quotations were high, on others high was reached before 11 o'clock. There were rumors here and there of support coming; indeed, there were positive signs of support in the last hour yesterday, but a close study of the situation falled to detect any actual support today. Moreover, there indications that the advances were meeting actual liquidation, presumably from the buyers at the low range of Tuesday.

Street Pessimistic.

In the past a way has been found to meet emergencies. The Northern Securities decision hurt no one. The combe very favorable after all. If the To-bacco trust is dubbed "bad," it is bebe very favorable after all. If the Tobacco trust is dubbed "bad," it is because it was overly anxious to do it all on the same basis as Standard Oil,
But should these two be termed such,
Ithere would be no reason for putting the
